INGERSOLL DEAD.

Expired This Afternoon, Dying of Apoplexy.

Sudden Summons Starts the Country and the Facts Are Not Given Out.

NEW YORK, July 21.—2:30 p.m.—Rich Ingersoll, the noted infant, died this afternoon at his home, Tudor Ferry, New York. The cause of his death was apoplexy. There is too much excitement about the home of the dead to get any details of his death, but the sudden summons seems to have followed soon after he had arrived at the noon hour.

CAR STRIKERS.

Devilry Committed in Cleveland Quiet in New York.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 21.—A dynamite bomb was thrown at 3:50 o'clock this morning into the main car of the street railway company, wrecking the roof of the building and some of the cars therein. Fortunately no body was hurt. The strikers are suspected of this piece of devilry.

NEW YORK, July 21.—The strikers are losing out here and in Brooklyn. Nearly all the cars are today moving in Brooklyn. There are no disturbances.

THEY MULTIPLY.

Several More Anti-Gospel Meetings are to be Held.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 21.—The anti-slavery meetings are multiplying. There is now one out for one here, one in Cincinnati and one at Winchester, besides those generally known. These meetings are all to be held on Monday next and in spite of the short time given for them to become public the prospects are good for large audiences at all of them.

HE WAS DISCHARGED.

Deputy La Rue Brings in a Prisoner Who is Acquitted.

188 Deputy Marshal La Rue returned at 6 o'clock last evening from Gallia, Fogg county, where he arrested J. D. Humphreys, a well known resident and formerly a magistrate, on a charge of illicit whiskey selling.

He was brought in last evening after supper at the custom house to Commissioner Payvar and acquited, the evidence being insufficient.

LYNCHED SIX.

Louisiana Reports an Old Trick of Hers.

LAKEVILLE, La., July 21.—Deacon, a prominent physician, quarreled with an Indian in the county yesterday. He was later shot by a son of Indians. Last night six of the Indians who were implicated in the shooting were arrested and lynched. There is great excitement over the wholesale hanging and there may be more trouble.

Short without shortening, shredded wheat biscuits.

SHOULD DIE.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 21.—Two negroes rudely assaulted a Mrs. Oglesby at Bainbridge after tying her husband and compelling him to witness the outrage. A posse is in pursuit of the ruffians and they will be hanged if caught.

THE LATEST.

The survivors of the orphan brigade are holding their annual reunion at Glasgow today.

The foreign consuls were received by Admiral Dewey aboard the cruiser.

The admiral intends to visit Vienna.

The post office department will next year ask an appropriation for auto mobiles to collect the mails in first class cities.

Admiral Dewey yesterday filed suit against the United States at Washington to recover the prize money due him and the men of his fleet at Manila for the vessels sunk there by them.

At the auditorium in Chicago last night speeches were made by Mr. Bryan, Senator Teller, George Fred Williams, Alex. Tamm, Jas. Steeves, Alford, and others.

Carroll Powers, battalion adjutant of the Second Kentucky, was Thursday made a second lieutenant of volunteers. This exceeds Kentucky's quota, but friends are endeavoring to secure commissions for Lieutenant R. E. Grinstead, Second Kentucky, and Corporal Thomas Middleton, First Kentucky. Tennessee has been offered commissions for eight second lieutenants for the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh infantry if they will recruit forty men each.

Shredded wheat biscuits sold by Pauché Joffre.

Wenbergs Inquire: "There is no man who can read the straightforward and frank statement of Captain W. C. Stamps as to what took place between him and Giddens and doubt that the old man is telling the truth and the whole truth. The brouhaha by which he was ousted out of the nomination is un-derstood, but there are many unorthodox things in these latter days of Kentucky politics."

IT WAS WHISKEY.

John Davis Went Home Drunk—Judge Sanders Did the Rest.

John Davis is the name of a man of Mechanicsburg who is employed at Kilgore's leading factory. Yesterday he went home drunk and found his wife preparing dinner. He began to use such provoking language that the neighbors were aroused, and some of them got out in time to see him push his wife down. She narrowly missed falling against the stove. When she fell she was hurt and remained on the floor crying. He then had trouble with his step daughter.

He came to the court that he was drunk and that there was no one who was more against striking women who was more against striking women who was more against striking women.

Prosecuting Attorney Wheeler Campbell made a speech and said to the court, when the case came before Judge Sanders this morning, that he thought such cases should meet the most severe punishment for the protection of defenseless and innocent wives from brutal half drunken husbands.

Judge Sanders said that the court of appeals had decided that when a man is drunk, he is not legally responsible as a man who is not, for what he does, but that he always think the drunk was wrong and ought to be reversed. He said under the circumstances Davis was not as guilty as he would have been had he been sober, and assessed a fine of $25 and costs, and recognized him in the sum of $100 to keep the peace for one year.

IT IS UNKNOWN.

Whether Bryan Promised to Visit Kentucky or Not.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 21.—Mr. Bryan will come to Kentucky about September 1, and spend a week giving a speech for the Democratic state ticket and for the election of a Democratic legislature. He made this announcement yesterday to Mr. Goode at the Sherman House, Chicago. He had been previously waited on by several anti-Gospel people who urged him not to come to Kentucky in the interest of the Democratic ticket.

CHICAGO, July 21.—Bryan has left Chicago. It is not known whether he promised to visit Kentucky to speak in behalf of Goode and the state ticket but Ex-Governor Atwood doesn't think so. In Humphreys, a well known resident and formerly a magistrate, on a charge of illicit whiskey selling.

TOOK THE OTHER TACK.

State Central Committeemen May Still Remove County Committee, at Will.

Louisville Commercial: "Another charge of treachery is brought up against Goebel.

The latest arrangement refers to the action of the committee on permanent organization, the majority report of which was adopted in the state preparatory convention. The report recommended that the party rules as they were adopted by the convention of 1887, and as they were standing at the time, be adopted by the convention in their entirety. The report was signed by H. B. Hines, chairman, J. M. Anderson, secretary, J. M. Worton, Joseph L. Rulock, J. L. Furnish, T. M. Mercurio and John L. Smith. A minority of the committee did not sign the report, but did not offer a minority report because when the time came for the reports the convention had already become imbued by manipulation of the committee on credentials.

"Emmett Orr, editor of the Courier News, now comes forward with his following statement:

"Mr. William Lindsay of this place testifies it was the positive agreement of the committee on organization while in session that the organization of young committees were hereafter to be made by the people, that no names were to be filled by committee, but in all cases the people were to elect, yet a report was made committee men declare they never heard of any bill read in the convention, and further that Mr. Worton of Paducah, who signed the report, declares that it was brought to him with the declaration that it was agreeable to Mr. Stone and it would not be presented until all the members of the committee were in. In this manner the report on resolutions and organization were put through without a consultation of the committees or a vote of the convention."

"Before the convention it was the set plan of the Louisville city administration Democrats that the party have the power of the district members of the state central committee to remove appointments of the county committees by amending in the convention so that the county committees could be chosen directly by the voters. All our $3.00 hats at $1.50. They consist of trimmed leghorns, short back sailors, chiffon hats and hats of every shape and style. They must go now regardless of price, to call and see the extreme low figures we have placed on everything pertaining to head gear. All our chiffons, ribbons and flowers are seasonable, mid-summer trimming and four prices cannot be duplicated elsewhere.

HOW STURGEON IS CAPTURED.

Russian Cossacks Fish Through the Ice of Swift Rivers.

To fish while mounted on the back of a horse probably would be beyond the capacity of gentle Isaac Walton of delightful memory, yet that is the way sturgeon is captured in the frozen rivers of the Urals mountains. Russian Cossacks fish in large bands. They gallop along until they reach the point in the river where the current has its swiftest flight. There they dismount and cut into the ice until they have cleared a small pool of water which extends across the rapid current almost from one bank of the river to the other. A net is then sunk to the bottom of the stream and stretched across it at the open pool, so that not a single fish can swim beyond its meshes. Then the horses are mounted and the Cossacks turn back and ride along the edge of the river for about four or five miles. Then the band wheels about and gallops rapidly along the ice covered stream, making a picture that would delight a Schreyer or a Fromentin. The loud cannonade caused by the shooting of the horses' hoofs on the surface of the ice terrifies the sturgeon and they swim quickly in advance of their pursuers, tumbling finally in swarms into the net that waits their capture.
